White Settlement Now
Sahara in Wet Precinct;
Arid Spot Two Miles Square.

Residents of White Settlement voted dry Tuesday by 23 to 4, and thereby became the county's only dry township within a wet justice precinct.

The voters banned sale of all alcoholic beverages in the recently-incorporated township which adjoins part of the Lake Worth bomber plant's southern boundary.

In so doing, they created a spot, nearly two miles square, which will be a dry area within the wet area of Precinct 4. (Incorporated towns may vote separately on the local option question, which ordinarily is based on county or justice precinct wishes).

The result of the election went into effect immediately, since there are no taverns or liquor stores in the township, making the customary 30-day notice unnecessary. Mrs. W. R. Day, election judge, said Commissioners Court will canvass the returns Thursday.

The new dry area is separate and apart from White Settlement Village, another new corporate entity which adjoins it on the east. That area is wet.

The number of dry votes at Tuesday's election was exactly the same as the number of signatures on the petition asking for the vote.

The action was taken as another area, Justice Precinct 3, which includes Grapevine, prepared to carry out the mandate of another dry election. Precinct 3 voters banned beer at an election last month. It will go into force late this month.

er has been more important than at this time, Sealy said, and no organization is more capable of representing its section than is the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

In presenting Dean J. Thomas Davis of Stephenville to the delegates, Mayor Ulmer congratulated the organization on having re-elected a man of Davis' ability as its president for the ensuing year.

Leadership Essential.

President Davis told the delegates that business leadership is essential to the preservation of the American way of life, and that the Chamber of Commerce is the logical source of that leadership.

Success of the movement for modernization of the State's fiscal system, in which WTCC has exercised leadership for several years, was predicted by Representative Humphrey, sponsor of such a measure which passed the House, but failed in the Senate of the last Legislature.

Declaring that a house-cleaning is long overdue at Austin, Humphrey declared that the state's financial affairs in this modern day are still being administered by "horse and buggy and ox car methods."

A revised Constitution is needed, he said, but much can be done by statute before a new fundamental law is adopted.

He suggested that candidates for both Governor and the House and Senate in next Summer's political campaign be asked to state their views specifically regarding fiscal reforms, and predicted that this will be one of the major issues in the and urging co-operation of the region in a still more ambitious program planned for the year. George Jones of Midland, second vice president of the organization, presided. The Tucker family, wife and daughter, from the University at Waco, were among the guests.

Delegations from Fort Worth and Waco were among the last to arrive which arrived for the banquet. The Fort Worth delegation was headed by J. W. Shugart, president of the WTCC Public Affairs Committee named by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce, including Dick, R. E. Cox, Galen H. McKinney, H. H. Wilkinson, Alton W. B. Todd, C. W. Wood, E. U. S. Bombers Swapping Blows With Nipponese; Situation Is 'Unchanged.'

MANILA, Dec. 16 (AP)—The Japanese invaders, apparently having been fought to a standstill in the first phase of their thrust at the staunch island of Luzon, returned to the attack Tuesday only by air—with a raid on the Clongapo naval base northwest of Manila Bay.

The headquarters of Lieut. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the American commander-in-chief, reported no new Japanese efforts either to seize new beach-heads or to strengthen their hard won and costly positions about Vigan and Aparri, in the northwest and northeast of the island, and Legaspi in the extreme southeast.

"No change in the situation on the ground," said the succinct afternoon communique.

Resting on Aerial Forces.

The supposition in unofficial quarters was that the assailant was resting his aerial forces, repairing his planes and attempting to poise new forces off the coasts for another major attempt at a landing.

A War Department communique from Washington, reporting on the Philippine situation as of 9:30 a. m., Eastern standard time, Tuesday, described the enemy air activity as minor, stated that four Japanese fighter planes were shot down and said that American army bombers in renewed attacks upon Japanese vessels off Legaspi had seriously damaged a transport.

Previously aside from four Japanese transports sunk off Luzon an aggregate of five had been officially reported damaged.

Fleet Hunts Japanese.

Word that the American Pacific fleet was searching for the Japanese fleet to engage it was received enthusiastically among the Filipino civilians, and almost simultaneously it developed that more than 3,000 Filipinos volunteering for service at the front night from the nucleus of the

What to Do in an Air Raid

No. 2—Stay at Home

The safest place in an air raid: explode.

If you are away from home get under cover in the nearest shelter. Avoid crowded places. Stay off the streets.

The enemy wants you to run out into the streets, create a mob, start a panic. Don't do it.

If incendiary bombs fall, play a splash or stream of water on the bomb. Switch to a stream of water. The bomb will burn for about 15 minutes if left alone, only about two minutes under a fine water spray. A jet, splash stream or bucket of water will make it

Under raid conditions keep a bathtub and buckets full of water for the use of the fire department in case water mains are broken.

If you have a soda and acid extinguisher (the kind you turn up into the street) create a mob, start a panic. Don't do it.

Don't use the chemical kind—small spray from a garden hose (never cylinders of liquid or gas). If it is all right, however for ordinary fires.

But above all, keep cool and stay home.

Choose one member of the family to be the home air-raid warden, who will remember all the rules and what to do. Mother makes the best.

Record Is Set in 'Messiah'

Baptist Seminary Presents Full Oratorio for Fifth Time in 21st Yule Production.

BY E. CLYDE WHITLOCK.

The musical forces of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, under the direction of I. E. Reynolds, gave their annual Christmas performance of Handel's oratorio, "Messiah" Tuesday night in George E. Cowden Hall on the campus. The statistical record discloses that this was the twenty-first Christmas production, and the fifth for the work in its entirety, a feat which probably no other forces in the country dare to essay.

Soloists were Mrs. Cecil Goff, soprano; Mary Louise Beltz, Mary Hardin-Baylor College, Belton, contralto; Ellis L. Carnell, New Orleans, tenor, and Edwin McNeely, of the faculty, baritone.

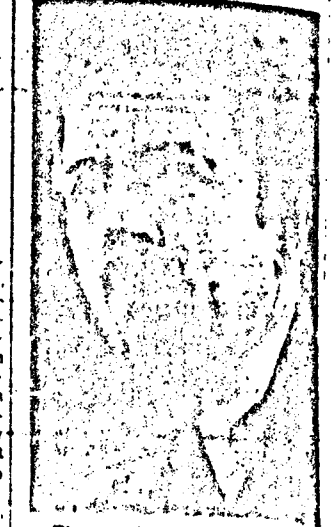

The chorus of 125 voices, admirably balanced in parts, was in exultant mood. The choristers were secure in their entrances, and kept their pace through to the end of the complex "Amen" chorus, with an especially stirring singing of "Hallelujah."

Both Miss Beltz and Mrs. Goff were new in the solo assignments. Miss Beltz, with her rich and vibrant voice, her background of experience and her sympathetic understanding of this music, turned in one of the finest performances ever heard on this stage. "He Was Despised" was instinct with noble sentiment.

Mrs. Goff had a difficult position to fill, returning after a number of years as soloist to a stage where she formerly appeared as a member of the chorus. Obviously nervous at the beginning, she achieved ever better control as the work progressed, and was at her best in "I Know That My Redeemer."

Among the traditions of this production none is more valued than the continued appearance of Carnell and McNeely as soloists, appointments they held in the first production. Carnell seems always in top form, from the authority of his "Every Valley" in the deep
