Christmas
Greetings

The Story of It

At one time General Booth desired to send a New Year's greeting to all the Salvation Army posts in the world. It had to be short and yet express the sentiments of his vast organization. His message contained one small word which inspired the poem — the word was,

“Others”

“Others”

Lord, help me live from day to day
In such a self-forgetful way
That even when I kneel to pray,
My prayer shall be for Others.

Help me in all the work I do
To ever be sincere and true
And know that all I'd do for you,
Must needs be done for Others.

Let “self” be crucified and slain
And buried deep, and all in vain
May efforts be to rise again
Unless to live for Others.

And when my work on earth is done
And my new work in heaven's begun
May I forget the crown I've won
While thinking still of Others.

Others, Lord; yes, Others;
Let this my motto be.
Help me to live for Others
That I may live like thee.
