In Re: All Cases Filed In § In Probate Courts
Tarrant County Probate Courts § Numbers One and Two
On or After June 1, 2002 § of Tarrant County, Texas

Administrative Order

The Probate Courts of Tarrant County, on their own motion and pursuant to Minute Order 2001-11 of the Presiding Judge of the Statutory Probate Courts of Texas, do enter this Administrative Order regarding the docketing of all cases filed on or after June 1, 2002.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, effective June 1, 2002, the County Clerk shall docket cases in Probate Court Number One and Probate Court Number Two on an alternating basis, with the following additional provisions:

Each decedent in a probate proceeding or ward in a guardianship proceeding (minor or incapacitated) shall be assigned a separate cause number.

In the instance of two or more related minors, each shall be assigned separate cause numbers but shall be docketed in the same court.

In the instances of spouses, decedent's estates or guardianships shall be assigned separate cause numbers but shall be docketed in the same court.

The probate proceeding for a deceased ward shall be assigned a separate cause number but shall be docketed in the same court.

SIGNED this 22 day of May, 2002.

Judge Steve M. King,
Tarrant County, Probate Court One

Judge Patrick W. Ferchill
Tarrant County Probate Court Two
