

Guardianship of Person Research Guide

Overview

This research guide includes information and resources on guardianship of the person. A guardianship is “the fiduciary relationship between a guardian and a ward or other incapacitated person, whereby the guardian assumes the power to make decisions about the ward’s person or property.” (Black’s Law Dictionary, 11th ed.) The resources listed below are not exhaustive and may not include the most up-to-date information. It is for information purposes only and should not be construed as legal advice or act as the substitute for legal counsel.
