7-22-90 continued by agreement until 2 P.M. June 24th and the bond of Annie Wade for her appearance at said time is fixed at the sum of $100.

7-24-1890 This case being heard and it being admitted by the relation that the proceedings in the Magistrate court were a regular trial a bond to be taken in the sum of $100 was required of relation by an order of court and it appearing that the parties consented a bond for appeal was taken and court was adjourned until the next day. The judge has therefore permitted court upon giving the case bond for regular by magistrate and further ordered that the relation proceed hereafter.
