April 2022

COMMISSIONER'S CORNER

COFFEE WITH THE COMMISSIONER

Friday, April 8, 2022

7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m.

Start your day with us

Northeast Courthouse
645 Grapevine Hwy.
Hurst, Texas 76054

Join us in the Community Room!

How about this beautiful spring weather! Wildflowers are blooming, people are getting together, and events are happening. I hope we can all take some time to enjoy the outdoors, maybe take a drive and view the beauty throughout Texas during this time of year.

We have a lot to celebrate in Precinct 3 with two recent events. Our 12th Annual Tarrant Transportation Summit attracted nearly 600 attendees on Thursday, February 10, at the Hurst Conference Center. I want to thank our incredible speakers, sponsors, volunteers, cities, chambers, and my staff for making this a very informative and memorable event. We received many wonderful comments. Still, the one I often heard the most was how great it was to be together again with so many friends, leaders in business, transportation, and our communities.

This year's keynote speaker Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar, joined experts who spoke about the dollars and sense of transportation. He provided an updated financial outlook for our state and region, clarifying the available resources to commit to transportation and infrastructure investment. Click here to see the presentations from our Transportation Summit.

I was very impressed with the number of participants at our Northeast Tarrant County Seniors Rock Garden open house on Monday, March 7. For almost four hours, our participating seniors "rocked out" by painting and decorating rocks that we placed in our rock garden at the Northeast Courthouse. Click here to see the Friday, March 9, mention that KXAS/NBC 5 gave us on their "Wake Up to Something Good" segment that highlighted the fun we had.

As that story said, our seniors have painted and decorated over 1,000 rocks with positive messages. These rocks were given as Valentine's Day and Christmas gifts for seniors receiving meals from Metroport Meals on Wheels, and to homebound seniors through Mid-Cities Care Corps. Also, to show appreciation and support for team members at Texas Health Resources Harris Methodist Hospital in Bedford for their endless dedication and courage throughout the Pandemic and this is just the beginning!

Please remember that April is National Volunteer Month. We have so many wonderful people in Northeast Tarrant who tirelessly give their time to many organizations throughout the year. We are very fortunate to have many friends and active volunteers who help us with our events each year. We would not be able to give back to our communities the way we do without the help of our VOLUNTEERS! Thank you so much!

And finally, I hope to see you at our Coffee with the Commissioner this Friday, April 8, starting at 7:30 a.m. until 9:00 a.m. in our Northeast Courthouse Community Room. As always, we'll have hot coffee, fresh doughnuts, and the best conversations you can imagine! Everyone is welcome to stop by.

Question of the Month

Question: During the period of the Republic of Texas, what amount in American dollars were notes signed by individuals promising to pay a cow and a half passed for?

Answer on Page 4.

The Quote of the Month - "Texans are risk-takers, and that is one of the things that make this state special. If they take a risk and it doesn't pay off, it's not viewed as a failure, just as a delay on the road to success."

2022 NATIONAL WORK ZONE AWARENESS WEEK

Drive Like You Work Here

April 11-15 #Orange4Safety

https://ops.fhwa.dot.gov/wz/outreach/wz_awareness.htm

In recognition of National Work Zone Awareness Week, April 11-15, 2022, this is a friendly reminder to drive safely when passing through the state's more than 3,400 active work zones. In 2020, more than 22,000 traffic crashes occurred in work zones in Texas, resulting in 186 deaths, a 9 percent increase in traffic fatalities over the previous year. Another 680 people were seriously injured.

Driver Safety: Work zones often present a challenging environment for drivers to navigate. Drivers may encounter uneven pavement, narrow lanes, concrete barriers, slow-moving heavy equipment and vehicles that make sudden stops. Driving too fast and not paying attention are the leading causes of work zone crashes. Watch for warning signs and stay alert when driving through work zones. We want to ensure everyone and their passengers get home safely.

Please keep the following tips in mind when driving through work zones:

- Plan ahead to avoid delays.
- Pay attention and put the phone away
- Don't tailgate
- Obey road crew flaggers
- Slow down and follow posted work zone speed limits
- Remember, traffic fines double when workers are present and can cost up to $2,000.00

In addition, Navy Federal Credit Union is one of the latest additions to Glade Parks. Work continues on Walk-On's Sports Bistreaux, located beside 54th Street Restaurant and Drafthouse. Valvoline Instant Oil Change, located adjacent to Quik Trip, is nearing completion. Site development work has begun for Glade Parks Block C, Lot 5, which will be the location of a new six tenant in-line commercial building. A Historical Moment in Time “The History of Bob Jones”

John Dolford "Bob" Jones was born a slave in 1850, the son of white slaveholder Leazer Alvis Jones and his slave girl, Elizabeth, known as Lizzie. Leazer left his white wife and four children in Arkansas before the Civil War and traveled with Lizzie and their mixed-race children to Texas, where he bought land in northern Tarrant County.

As a young teen, Bob worked his father's land as a slave. At the end of the Civil War, Leazer freed him and returned to his white family in Arkansas, leaving Lizzie and her children behind. Bob and his brother, Jim, bought the 60-acre farmstead from their father. Bob started buying more land, amassing more than 1,000 acres, one of the largest holdings in present-day Southlake, according to the Southlake Historical Society.

In 1874, Bob married Almeady Chisum, the mixed-race daughter of Texas cattleman John Chisum and his slave, Jensie. The couple had 10 children and built a log house that was eventually expanded to a two-story structure with a balcony and wraparound porches. A successful farmer and rancher, Bob hired black and white sharecroppers and workers for his operation. He built a family church and the one-room Walnut Grove School for his children and other nearby black children, who were banned from attending white schools. "He hired teachers from Dallas during the summer to come teach at the school," recalled his grandson Bobby Jones, who grew up on the farm and became an epidemiologist for Tarrant County.

After Bob's death in 1936, his children intended to carry on the family tradition of farming and ranching the Jones land, but that was not to be. First the landmarks Bob created began to disappear: Mount Carmel Baptist Church and the family home burned down, and the school closed and eventually fell apart. After that, most of the land was lost to the construction of Lake Grapevine, which began in the 1940s, Bobby said. Some Jones family descendants held small plots until the 1990s, but most of the heirs were forced to go elsewhere for work. "They needed to figure out some other way to make a living," Bobby said. "So my daddy [Emory Jones] and uncle Jinks [Jones] opened an auction barn." Auctions were held several times a week on a dusty site at White's Chapel Boulevard and SH 114 from 1947 until 1984. The brothers' wives ran a café to feed the many auction-goers, passers-by and truckers who hauled rocks to Grapevine for the lake dam. It is regarded as the first integrated café in Texas. "It was a café for anyone who wanted to come," Bobby said. "Segregation was not something we were really aware of other than the fact that we couldn't go to school with white kids."

Besides the park and the nature center and preserve, the Carroll school district named its newest elementary school Walnut Grove in tribute to the legacy of Bob Jones. "Bob Jones was truly an American success story," said Debra Edmondson, president of the board of the Bob Jones Nature Center and Preserve. "And I'm proud to say that we continue to tell that story."

OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

AGE MY WAY: MAY 2022

Every May, the Administration for Community Living (ACL) leads the nation's observance of Older Americans Month (OAM.) In 2022, ACL will be focusing on aging in place—how older adults can plan to stay in their homes and live independently in their communities for as long as possible. The 2022 theme is Age My Way, an opportunity for all of us to explore the many ways older adults can remain in and be involved with their communities.

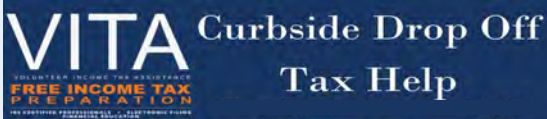

Research tells us that older people with an active lifestyle:

- ◇ Are less likely to develop certain diseases.
- ◇ Have a longer lifespan.
- ◇ Are happier and less depressed.
- ◇ Are better prepared to cope with loss.

Get Out and About:

- ◇ Visit a senior center and take part in its events and activities
- ◇ Travel with a group of older adults, such as a retiree group
- ◇ Visit friends and family
- ◇ Visit local museums. Many offer free group tours.

Be sure to stay tuned for materials, resources, and activity ideas to help you observe OAM at <https://acl.gov/oam/2022/older-americans-month-2022>.
