RFP FOR ANNUAL CONTRACT FOR COMMUNITY BASED DETENTION SERVICES

V. GENERAL DESCRIPTION:

- A. Community Based Detention Services is a short-term intervention for youth released from detention pending court. Under this model, youth would receive advocacy and assessment services and would be assisted in complying with court sanctioned conditions of release such as school attendance, transportation for drug testing, curfew, appointments, and return for court and intake appearances.
- B. The goal of CBD is to provide a balanced approach of protecting the community while providing individual services to youth while living in the community, primarily in the home of the parent/or adult caretaker. Youth are referred to TCJS for delinquent conduct but often do not present a threat to community safety based on the referring offense or on mitigating circumstances of the youth and/or family. These youth can be served through close supervision in the home where they can be allowed to continue their education, employment, or other activities which support successful community living.
- C. It is envisioned that the services will consist of regular but random contacts with the youth and family at home, at school, or at the place of employment. Regular curfew contacts are also expected. Monitoring of court-ordered conditions of release, attendance at any Court-ordered activities, programs or appointments and ensuring the youth is present for all subsequent Court hearings is expected. Services and activities provided may not involve the exposure of low-risk youth on CBD to high-risk youth on community supervision.
- D. Selected providers are expected to have a “no refusal” policy to work with all youth referred, and exclude “permanently discharged” status, as youth may be reactivated at any time.

VI. TARGET POPULATION:

- A. The target population is pre-adjudicated or adjudicated youth between the ages of 10 and 17 and identified as at-risk for further involvement in the juvenile justice system. Referrals for this service will occur based on internal screening by TCJS and Court order.

VII. PROPOSAL REQUIREMENTS:

- B. Tarrant County will use and recognize the State of Texas certification process in conjunction with the implementation of this policy. The County does recognize other agencies' certifications. - C. The Commissioners Court may establish HUB target goals. Through a systematic approach of soliciting quotes, bids and proposals from certified HUBs and in compliance with applicable state and federal law this policy will strive to meet those goals.
 1. Target goals should consider:
 - the availability of HUB firms within the specific category of goods or services to be procured; and
